Title: Baby Room Lead

Reports to: Nursery Manager

Background

An opportunity has opened up for Baby Room Lead at one of our six nurseries. Barley Wood nursery was designed and created by YMCA Dulverton Group in 2016, since our purchase of Barley wood house. The 100-place setting is based in one half of the Barley Wood house, which was built in 1801. This magnificent building is steeped in history with many of its charming original features remaining to this day. The setting is nestled in 11 acres of woodland with beautiful gardens to explore, the grounds and views at Barley wood really are breath taking. It is truly unique backdrop to our children's education, where views of the Mendip Hills overlook the Italian garden with its beautiful pond and "secret gardens". We place great importance on the value of outdoor play at Barley wood and spend lots of our time outside exploring and learning through nature. As such, Barley wood nursery has a great reputation locally and is the early years setting of choice. We have a long waiting list of customers reflecting this.
